BY THE Sea

Cardenio: OR DOUBLE FALSEHOOD

A NEW ADAPTATION OF A LOST PLAY
BY WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE & JOHN FLETCHER

Thurs. 6/20- 8pm
Fri. 6/21- 8pm
Sat. 6/22- 8pm*

*Opening Toast

Shakespeare is retiring- leaving John Fletcher in charge-but first they have to finish "Cardenio," a chivalrous tale from Cervantes' Don Quixote. A rollicking and dramatic adventure replete with maids in disguise, dastardly plots and pithy word-play.

HENRY IV:

FALSTAFF & THE BOY WHO WOULD BE KING

A NEW ADAPTATION OF BOTH PARTS OF SHAKESPEARE'S HENRY IV

Fri. 6/28- 8pm
Sat. 6/29- 8pm

Young Prince Hal, the reluctant heir to the throne, spends more time drinking and playing tricks on Falstaff than he does navigating the intrigues of court. But with England itself at stake, Hal embraces his destiny, becoming the king who will lead his country to victory at Agincourt.

Join us for the Opening performances of Shakespeare by the Sea's 27th Season!

Gather friends, family and take a seat on the Bandshell benches - or stake out a spot on the grass. Join us for an unforgettable evening of theatre under the stars!
